What we can do for you!

One-Stop-Shop

Suzanne Brown, our Community Navigator provides an invaluable “information service” to the community through our community information centre allowing better access to services in the community. Whether you need a support group, healthcare services, mental health support, government navigation or just locations of the community centres or “Rails to Trails”, she can help point you in the right direction.

Business Services

Need to photocopy, scan, fax or print? We have all that and more. There are multiple computers available through our C@P site, complimentary high speed WIFI and techno savvy staff available to help.

Comfortable, Confidential Meeting Space

We have multiple boardrooms and meeting spaces available to community groups and organizations complete with secure high speed internet, telephone service and other equipment such as projectors and computers available.

Education, Training and Recreational Events

We provide assistance in the organization of recreational and seniors events, first aid/CPR training, educational programming and more. Do you need help with funding sources and application writing, a particular software program, new technology or just internet and email navigation? Give us a call or drop in, maybe we can help.

Community Grants and Initiatives

We support a diversity of community projects, groups and organizations within the Trust area through our Grants and Initiatives. If you would like more information regarding the guidelines and principles of this program or to obtain application forms, go to www.aspotogan.org, give us a call or come in to talk to one of our staff. Full disclosure of all funds allocated can be found on our web site in the Coastline publication or you can pick up a hard copy at our facility.

Our Mission Statement

The mission of the Aspotogan Heritage Trust (AHT) is to use its resources to encourage and support the social, cultural, educational, environmental and economic development of the region.

2011-2016 Plan

The Aspotogan Heritage Trust will support the development of a “healthy community” initiative by working in partnership with the local, regional and provincial organizations to facilitate the implementation of the community’s vision for the region, building on opportunities to enhance the AHT region as a place to live, work and play.
